

Welcome to the Birthing Center at Columbus Regional Hospital

The following information will help you find your way to the Birthing Center when you come to the hospital.

WHERE DO I GO?

If you are 20 weeks or more along in your pregnancy, please enter the hospital through the Courtyard Entrance. If you need assistance, you can use the phone located to the left inside the first set of doors from the Courtyard Entrance. The phone will ring directly to the Birthing Center staff. If you do not need assistance, you can take the elevators across from the Courtyard Entrance and go to the right and walk a short distance to the Birthing Center which will be on your left. Please use the telephone at the desk in the waiting area to notify the nursing staff that you have arrived.

WHAT DO I DO IF IT'S NIGHT?

If you arrive between 8:30 p. m. and 5:30 a.m. the first set of outside doors to the Courtyard Entrance will be open, but the inside doors will be locked. Please use the telephone that is located to the left inside the first set of doors. The phone will ring directly to the Birthing Center staff. A staff member will assist you to the Birthing Center.

WHERE SHOULD WE PARK?

The person driving can park temporarily at the Courtyard Entrance and then find a parking spot in the visitors' parking after you have been assisted. The circle drive at the Courtyard Entrance should make it convenient.

WHERE DO I GO IF IT'S AN EMERGENCY?

If you have need for emergency care of you are less than 20 weeks along in your pregnancy and have been directed to the hospital by your doctor, please go to the Emergency Department. The Emergency Department is accessed form 17th street. There is Emergency parking nearby, on the 17th street side of the hospital.
